Conner Novicki

Professional Summary

Graduating senior at the University of Kentucky seeking entry-level team positions relating to actuarial sciences, mathematics, and computer science. Looking for a fast-paced, challenging environment to encourage professional and personal growth.

Education and Accomplishments

University of Kentucky — Lexington, Kentucky B.S. Mathematics, May 2017, 3.64 GPA Minor in Computer Science

Relevant Courses: Calculus I-III, Modern Algebra I & II, Game Theory, Numerical Methods, Number Theory, Combinatorics, Linear Algebra, 3+ programming courses (C++/Python)

Accomplishments

Presidential Scholarship – 4-year full tuition while maintaining GPA above 3.3 Completion of Actuarial Exam P – Passed on first attempt

Work Experience

Undergraduate Assistant – University of Kentucky

Aug 2015 - Dec 2016

Tutored Calculus students in a classroom style setting.

Private Math Tutor

Aug 2013 - May 2016

Tutored both High School and College students in one-on-one setting.

Orange Leaf

June 2012 - Aug 2014

Worked with a team to balance product management and customer interaction.

Skills

- Passionate about mathematics, computer programming, and independent learning
- · Proficient in C++, Python, JavaScript, and Java
- Critical thinker with strong focus on time-efficiency

Outside Interests

- · 11+ years of experience playing the drums and still volunteer monthly for church worship band
- Knowledgeable and passionate about Myers-Briggs; INTP personality type
- PC/Xbox gamer